

Moab Bike Trip – April 24-26

We are planning a bike trip to Moab, Utah on April 24-26 for 3 nights. (You drive home on April 27). It's a 9 hour drive to get there, so you will either have a long drive on April 24 or you could start driving on April 23 and stopping for the night somewhere. (We stayed the night in Holbrook and then had a 5 hour drive the next day.) The hotel is called the Gonzo Inn, located right downtown within walking distances of all the cute shops for the non-riders.

April 24:

The 1st night is just a happy hour with pizza at the hotel.

April 25:

On the morning, we will ride the Potash road with sheer cliffs riding 10-50 miles that day, whichever you choose to ride. If you have never seen the Arches National Park, you have time to drive in the Park this afternoon before Happy Hour that night. We will then all drive to the Canyonlands Sound & Light show for a buffet dinner and fantastic boat ride down the River.

April 26:

On April 26, we are driving into Canyonlands National Park to the "Island in the Sky" Visitor Center with distances of 10-50 miles again depending on your ability. We will have a happy hour again this night, but dinner is on your own. The Moab Brewery is a great place and very close to the hotel.

Hotel prices are very pricey in this town so we have a price of $825 per couple, which includes the hotel room with a king bed, pizza party, happy hour drinks and snacks, all snacks and drinks from our sag vehicle, and the Boat trip and dinner. We have single rates and camping rates available - ask Ted for more information. If you are interested, please advise me soon so we can add you to the list and reserve the rooms.
